

Intelligence and Security Council

The functions of the Council are to review intelligence policies and activities and to examine the expenditure, administration, complaints by, and oversee the legal framework of, the Directorate.

The Intelligence and Security Council consist of;

- (a) the Permanent Secretary to the President;
- (b) the Attorney General;
- (c) the Director General; and
- (d) the Deputy Director General